We are More than Conquerors in Christ Jesus

Romans 8:36-37

In the midst of life's storms and battles, finding peace can feel like an elusive dream. But there is a champion who promises to lead us through the chaos and bring us tranquility: Jesus. In this powerful article, we'll explore how Jesus champions our battles and offers a refuge of peace in the midst of the storm.

Every day, we face challenges that test our strength and our faith. Whether it is emotional turmoil or physical illness, any of these can leave us feeling powerless and wondering what we can do. I want you to know we have Jesus, our defender/savior, in our times of need. Jesus is there to strengthen us emotionally, physically, and psychologically. He is an ever-present help in our time of trouble. Jesus understands our battles because He has experienced the same battles we have. Jesus experienced rejection. He knows what it means not to be wanted. He has experienced betrayal. He knows what it feels like for someone to be disloyal. He has experienced the pain of abuse and being lied on. To be judged guilty knowing that you are innocent.

Every day, we wake up on a battlefield filled with spiritual landmines. Some are visible, and some are not. Some exist below the surface. We fight battles against anxiety, depression, and self-doubt. Some of our battles are with friends and family, co-workers, and bosses. However, we are reminded that we are more than conquerors in Christ Jesus. When the problem becomes insurmountable, God's Word reminds us that we are more than conquerors. When solutions seem distant or non-existent God asks us to trust in Him to see us through.

Faith and trust in God are never a passive enterprise. Trust is always alive, always active, always moving on our behalf. Trust is announcing to God that all is given to Him. We have placed all in His control. We place everything in God's control because we acknowledge our limitations. We recognize we need help. We lay down our burdens at the feet of Jesus and trust Him to carry our burdens. We release everything that troubles us to the capable hands of Jesus. When we let go of our fears, God has an opportunity to help us get through the trials in front of us. When we let go and trust God's wisdom, our path becomes less difficult.

In the midst of our storms and battles, Jesus stands as our Redeemer. The one who fights our battles. The one who offers peace, strength, and victory in adversity. We can find a peace that passes all understanding through faith, trust, surrender, and prayer. No matter the battle. Jesus is there with you. No matter the struggle. Jesus is there to strengthen you. Invite the One who commands the winds and the waves to be still. Invite the One who fed the hungry and healed the leper. Invite the One who told His disciples, all of them, “I will be with you always, unto the end of the age.”

Blessings,
Pastor Gool