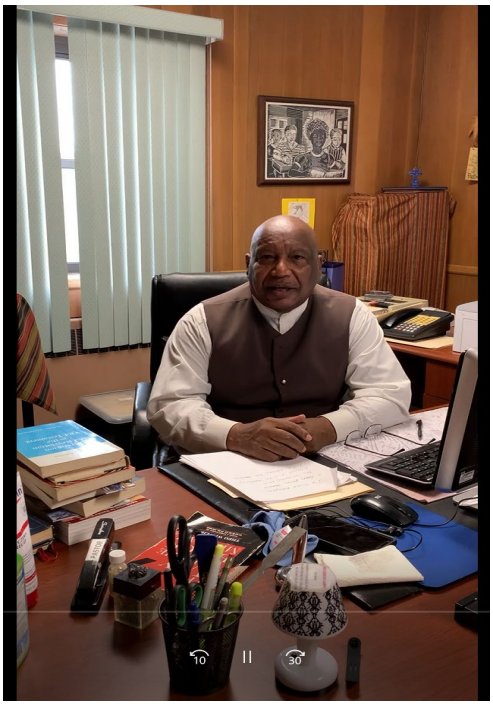
Happy Thanksgiving



Dear New Deliverance Family,
I am wishing everyone a Blessed Thanksgiving. I am certain this is not the Thanksgiving that everyone was looking forward to, but it is still a Blessed one because those who are near and dear to us are alive. We can share Thanksgiving this year through zoom, teleconferences even by making telephone calls but more important than eating is making sure that our families are healthy, that our families are safe and that we communicate to them that they are loved. Again a Blessed Happy Thanksgiving to each and everyone of you.

Blessing
